Note: From 1961-1973, Hondo (nom de plume, or alias, or AKA Peter Cedarstacker) wrote a social satire column for the Comfort News. The fictional town of Cedar Creek and all of its characters eventually became the real town of Luckenbach and all of its characters (and Luckenbach has some real characters!) The MOON reserves a special corner for Peter Cedarstacker, Writer, as a corner of wit and human insight for us today.

-Becky Crouch Barrales

CEDAR CREEK CLIPPINGS

The Wurstbottom family were breakfast, dinner and supper guests of the Joneses again Wed. of this week.

Senator Garble was an unexpected (he always is) visitor to Cedar Creek Wed. of this week. He came to thank all the people for votin' for him so much and nearly bought a round of beer, but he out-fumbled good little ole Jesus McNeil who let us use his unemployment check for a while. The one with the square holes in it.

After 4 more rounds, Senator Garble got more important and gave us a garbled report on several bills such as: HR

2468, ODT 3.00a, 24SKIDOO, and PS 007.

The Senator introduced PS 007 because he owes Mr. Spite a favor. (Has somethin' to do with a ballot box.) And the letters PS means "Pig Sales," and Mr. Spite is makin' money on his Home ranch for not raisin' pigs and on his pig ranch for raisin' 'em.

Senator Garble explained why, but I forgot now, the gov't subsidizes the pig breeder. Oh, it's to make the pigs cost more. But then they cost so much the feed lot man can't buy 'em so the people in Washington give some of our money (called a subsidy) to the feed lot man. Sos the pig trucker won't be left out they include him and that leaves pigs too high to export. And guess what? So the exporter and the butcher have to be subsidized too. And that makes a happy family.

Did you say, how 'bout the customer who buys the pig meat? He was left out on purpose. To h--- with him. He's the guy who's furnishin' the money for the project.

Ain't it funny (it really ain't) how the fellows in Washington can get their tail in a crack like that? And now they're just itchin' to get a pig in your kitchen, even though it's subsidized from the gate to the plate.
