Merry Christmas & Happy New Year from LUCKENBACH TEXAS !

Note: From 1961-1973, Hondo (nom de plume, or alias, or AKA Peter Cedarstacker) wrote a social satire column for the Comfort News. The fictional town of Cedar Creek and all of its characters eventually became the real town of Luckenbach and all of its characters (and Luckenbach has some real characters!) The MOON reserves a special corner for Peter Cedarstacker, Writer, as a corner of wit and human insight for us today.

-Becky Crouch Barrales

CEDAR CREEK CLIPPINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Jones visited relatives in Bear Creek Tuesday.

Jesus McNeil returned here from Mexico for the Christmas holidays here in Cedar Creek Monday of this week. He's playin' for the Costume Ball and has to work on his drum. It's broken and you can't beat it. (For those who don't understand, that means you can't beat it cause it's gone broke, not cause you just can't beat that. Doesn't that beat it?)

The annual Deer Sausage Festival is a big thing we have every year. Cedar Creek is the defending champion again this year and if we win the "Golden Casing" this year we'll get to stuff it. (I'll explain that next year.)

Bear Creek has had a spy walkin' 'round Cedar Creek spyin' and sniffin' the air for any leak in our Sausage Stuffin' Security. This is not a new (news is plural) for us here in Cedar Creek. Last year our Ground Meat Counter Intelligence Office (GMCIO) intentionally gave "way Cedar Creek Sausage Secrets and ruined a whole batch of Bear Creek Field Lark Sausage. We killed two birds with one leak and I don't mind tellin' you that old Joe Wurstbottom did it since he's a leadin' member of the Bird Lovers of Our Precinct (BLOOP). We're pretty tricky here in Cedar Creek.

Gus Gutowsky is tryin' for the individual championship again this year and has his smokehouse locked with a lock. The Mrs. goes out twice a day and caresses her casings to wipe the mouse tracks off 'em. Gus' trappin' brother ain't enterin' this year cause he nearly lost the team championship for us last year. The judges found hairs from a possum in his pure pork patties.

Our security staff is also watchin' one of our citizens you'll recall who puts sawdust in each end of sausage because it makes it hard to make both ends meet, to be sure he don't enter even a nuthin'.

Mrs. Smith, Santiago, that is, is Sausage Queen and will preside over the gala Costume Ball, known by the light at heart as Meat Ball. Her dress, donated by the Big Flat Meat Market, is real lacy and has fringe benefits up front. The twenty-eight miles of fringe is made of dazzling sausage string. On her head she'll wear a halo of blowed-up sausage casings transparent in all it's splendor and bedecked with baby pearls and ground glass from the old church window that broke while a ball game was bein' played last year between Banker Smith and Cedar Creek. Mama has a secret costume of raw casings and is going as the Missing Link. Don't tell, especially you who don't read this.

I'd like to say Merry Christmas, but I'm savin' that for next week, but I can't hardly wait to say it, cause it sounds so good. I'd also like to say Merry Xmas to save space and the poor tired Linotype operator, but then someone's gonna think I don't like Christ.

Gotta go to Big Flat today and do some Xmas, whoops, Christmas shopping. We can get everything we need here in Cedar Creek but Mama says it's more fashionable to shop out of town where the ladies with hi heels and ideas do.
